

2009 Travelers of the Year Awards

Michael Montano, RN, ACLS, BLS

HealthOne Staffing

Specialties: Intensive Care, Emergency

Years Traveling: 3.75

Nominated by: Josh Allison, Senior Recruiter

"Michael is always positive and upbeat, and he definitely loves traveling. He is very easy to work with. I know I can count on Michael when we need something from him, and on top of it all, he does a great job at the hospital he works for. Everyone just loves the guy!"

Michael Moyer, RN, EMT, BLS Instructor

LiquidAgents Healthcare

Specialties: Emergency, Critical Care

Years Traveling: 4

Nominated by: Cindy Yates, Recruiter

"Mike has always done an outstanding job at every assignment he has done for us. Not only is he reliable and a constant professional, but he is fun and a joy to speak with.

His positive attitude and reliability make him a treasured traveler. In the three years we have worked together, I have only heard positive feedback."

Danielle Newton, RN

Travel Nurse Solutions

Specialty: Emergency

Years Traveling: 5

Nominated by: Jennifer Laughlin, Recruiter

"Danielle understands and respects what it really means to be a travel nurse. Danielle looks at every new contract as an adventure, as an opportunity to not only learn and experience a new part of the country, but also to serve and assist. She truly cares about giving each ER, and each patient, the utmost level of service and care. She makes friends everywhere she goes and does a wonderful job of getting out there to see all that she can in each new city."

Brian O'neill, PTA

Platinum Select

Discipline: Physical Therapy

Specialty: Outpatient Therapy

Years Traveling: 1

Nominated by: August Larson, Sales Manager

"Brian displays a passion for patient care and is well-regarded by peers, supervisors and, most importantly, patients. His compassion and attitude make him a standout in the profession."